FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

SAGE HELPS HARRISBURG UNIVERSITY RAISE $100,000 FOR SCHOLARSHIP FUND

HARRISBURG, PA, FEBRUARY 6, 2006: SAGE Technology Solutions, Inc. today announced their exclusive sponsorship of the Harrisburg University of Science and Technology First Annual Honorary Alumni Event Wednesday night, January 25th, at the University's facility on Market Street in Harrisburg. The goal of the event was to raise funding for scholarships that benefit the University's student population which is made up of 70% minority students and over 50% woman. Harrisburg University is the first, private, non-profit university to open in Pennsylvania in over 100 years and opened without a financial benefactor or endowment.

SAGE Technology Solutions, Inc. has been the University's partner in technology since before opening the doors to its pioneer class in August 2005 and was ask by the University to sponsor the event exclusively to support this scholarship kick-off. With financial support from Rauland-Borg, Crestron, Sanyo and EV/Telex, SAGE'S technology partners on the Harrisburg University project, SAGE honored the University's request, delivering automated classroom technology demonstrations and financial underwriting.

The event was attended by over 100 Harrisburg professionals with Mayor Stephen Reed, First Honorary Alumnus and Honorary Chair of HU, as the keynote speaker and host of the event. The University sought 100 friends to donate $1,000 at this "100 for One" Event and was a success. Over $100,000 was raised or committed in support of
